1 Policy Statement

- 1.1 The law recognises and The Trust respects that there will be occasions when working parents wish to take time off work to care for or spend time with their child or children.
- 1.2 This policy reflects the statutory right of employees with at least one year's continuous service to take up to 18 weeks of unpaid parental leave in respect of each child.
- 1.3 No-one will be subjected to a detriment for taking or seeking to take parental leave in accordance with this policy.
- 1.4 This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and it may be amended at any time.
- 1.5 This policy does not apply to agency workers, consultants or self-employed contractors.

2 Roles, Responsibilities and Implementation

- 2.1 The Pay, Performance and HR committee has overall responsibility for the effective operation of this policy and for ensuring compliance with the relevant statutory framework. The Pay, Performance and HR committee delegates day-to-day responsibility for operating the policy and ensuring its maintenance and review to the Human Resources Manager.
- 2.2 Managers have a specific responsibility to ensure the fair application of this policy and all members of staff are responsible for supporting colleagues and ensuring its success.

3 Entitlement to Parental Leave

- 3.1 Employees who fulfil the criteria set out in paragraph 3.3 and paragraph 3.4 are entitled to take up to 18 weeks of parental leave in relation to each child for whom they are responsible. The rules on how and when parental leave can be taken are set out in paragraph 4 to paragraph 7.
- 3.2 Any parental leave that employees take in relation to a child while working for another employer counts towards their 18-week entitlement. If an employee has taken parental leave in relation to a child during previous or concurrent employment, they should provide details to the Human Resources Manager.
- 3.3 To take a period of parental leave in relation to a child, an employee must:

- (a) have at least one year's continuous employment with The Trust;
 - (b) have or expect to have responsibility for the child; and
 - (c) be taking the leave to spend time with or otherwise care for the child.
- 3.4 An employee has responsibility for a child for the purposes of paragraph 3.3 if they:
- (a) are the child's biological mother or father, whether or not they are living with the child;
 - (b) are the child's adoptive parent; or
 - (c) otherwise have legal parental responsibility for the child, e.g. if they are the child's guardian.

4 Timing of Parental Leave

- 4.1 An employee can only take parental leave:
- (a) before the child's fifth birthday; or
 - (b) in the case of a child entitled to a disability living allowance, before the child's 18th birthday; or
 - (c) in the case of an adopted child, before the fifth anniversary of the date of placement or, before the child's 18th birthday, whichever comes first.
- 4.2 Unless the leave is to be taken in respect of a child entitled to a disability living allowance, an employee:
- (a) can only take parental leave in blocks of a week's leave or a multiple of a week's leave; and
 - (b) are only entitled to take four weeks of parental leave each year in relation to each child. A year for this purpose begins on the date when the employee became entitled to take parental leave in relation to the child in question.

5 Notification Requirements

- 5.1 Employees must give the Human Resources Manager notice of their intention to take parental leave. This notice must be in writing. The notice requirements are as follows:

- (a) Employees wishing to take parental leave commencing immediately on the birth of a child must give notice of this intention at least 21 days before the start of the expected week of childbirth (EWC). The notice must specify the EWC and the duration of the period of leave required.
- (b) Employees wishing to take parental leave commencing immediately on the adoption of a child must give notice of this intention at least 21 days before the start of the expected week of placement (EWP). If this is not possible, they must give as much notice as they can. The notice must specify the EWP and the duration of the period of leave required.
- (c) In all other circumstances, employees must give notice of their intention to take parental leave at least 21 days before they intend the leave to start. The notice must specify the dates on which the period of leave is to begin and end.
- 5.2 If an employee wishes to take a period of parental leave immediately after a period of ordinary paternity leave, they must give the Human Resources Manager notice of that intention at least 21 days before the start of the EWC (or EWP, if applicable). If this is not possible, they must give as much notice as they can. If an employee does not give notice at least seven days before their period of ordinary paternity leave starts, The Trust might not allow them to take the period of parental leave requested. However, The Trust will consider each case on its merits.

6 Evidential Requirements

- 6.1 Before an employee takes a period of parental leave under this policy, they must provide The Trust with evidence of:
- (a) their responsibility or expected responsibility for the child;
 - (b) the child's date of birth or date of adoption placement; and
 - (c) if applicable, the child's entitlement to a disability living allowance.
- 6.2 For details of what evidence is required in a particular circumstance, or if the employee is having difficulties obtaining the evidence, they should contact the Human Resources Manager.

7 Right to Postpone Parental Leave

- 7.1 Where an employee gives notice of their intention to take parental leave on the birth or adoption of a child in accordance with paragraph 5.1, The Trust will not postpone that leave.

- 7.2 The Trust will not postpone parental leave if, in the case of an adopted or disabled child, the postponement would result in the leave being taken after the child's 18th birthday.
- 7.3 However, in any other circumstances, The Trust might postpone a proposed period of parental leave for up to six months where the leave as planned would unduly disrupt Trust business. This postponement may occur, for example, where:
- (a) an employee wishes to take parental leave during a peak period;
 - (b) a number of employees wish to take parental leave at the same time;
 - (c) an employee's work is of importance to a time-critical project; or
 - (d) cover for the employee's work cannot be found before the date on which their parental leave is due to start.
- 7.4 If The Trust decides to postpone an employee's parental leave, no more than seven days after the employee gave notice of their intention to take the leave, the Human Resources Manager will:
- (a) consult with the employee about the date to which the leave might be postponed; and
 - (b) give the employee written notice stating the reason for the postponement, and the new beginning and end dates of the leave which has been agreed.
- 7.5 Employees will not lose their parental leave entitlement if, because of Trust imposed postponement of such leave, the leave remains untaken on the employee's child's fifth birthday (or on the fifth anniversary of the child's adoption placement, if applicable).

8 Terms and Conditions During Parental Leave

- 8.1 Parental leave under this policy is unpaid. An employee's contractual provisions relating to pay and benefits are suspended during parental leave.
- 8.2 However, during parental leave employees are entitled to benefit from any contractual terms they have in relation to being given notice, redundancy compensation and disciplinary and grievance procedures.

- 8.3 During parental leave, employees will remain bound by their obligation of good faith towards The Trust, as well as any contractual terms relating to the giving of notice, the disclosure of confidential information, the acceptance of gifts and benefits, and their freedom to participate in another business such as working for a third party.

9 Pensions

- 9.1 If an employee is a member of a defined benefit (final salary) pension scheme, a period of parental leave under this policy will count towards their pensionable service.
- 9.2 If an employee is a member of a defined contribution (money purchase) pension scheme, The Trust will not make contributions during a period of unpaid parental leave.

10 Returning to Work

- 10.1 Employees are normally entitled to return to work following parental leave to the same position they held before commencing leave. The terms of employment will be the same as they would have been had the employee not been absent.
- 10.2 However, it might not be possible for The Trust to allow the employee to return to the same job where their period of parental leave has been longer than four weeks, or has been combined with a period of additional maternity, paternity or adoption leave. In such circumstances, a suitable and appropriate alternative position will be offered.
- 10.3 In accordance with The Trust's Flexible Working Policy, any requests by employees to change their working patterns (such as working part-time) after parental leave will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis.

11 Abuse of this Policy

- 11.1 Where an employee takes a period of parental leave under this policy for purposes other than spending time with or otherwise caring for their child, this will be dealt with as a disciplinary issue under The Trust's Disciplinary Procedure.
